CONGRESSIONAL CONTESTS.

Chances Before Republicans. Washington, November 12.—The republicans are preparing for numerous contests in the south, and these will be quickly settled after the fifty-fourth congress meets. In Virginia, Maryland, the two Carolinas, Alabama, Tennessee, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas and Missouri, contests will undoubtedly be made. Chairman Babcock, of the republican committee, has instructed the representatives in the south to obtain counsel and prepare for contests where certificates are likely to be refused to those honestly elected.
